

Tinopolis - Llanelli

We are looking for an enthusiastic and creative individual to join the Tinopolis production team. The successful candidate will join the graphics department to work on a host of programmes including two live daily magazine shows, debate programmes, documentaries and sports.

This is an exciting opportunity to work in the live environment of television broadcasting, alongside creating original and varied creative content. The successful applicant should be versatile and have the ability to work individually or create collaboratively with others on a variety of projects. Comprehensive knowledge of the Adobe suite is essential and familiarity with 3d software would be beneficial. Training for live broadcasting using EVS and Xpression will be provided.

The ability to communicate in Welsh is essential due to the nature of the productions and work environment.

We are a company that wants to reflect the communities we serve and believe in diversity and equal opportunities. We always welcome applications from individuals of any age, ethnic background, disability, sexuality and social background in accordance with the Equality Act 2010.
